Okavango Gin

A Taste of Time Standing Still. Born in the Okavango Delta, Okavango Gin captures the rhythm of the wild—distilled off-grid beneath Ebony trees in a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Signature botanicals include mopane seed (Botswana's answer to juniper), papyrus-filtered Okavango waters, and wild marula. Handcrafted in small batches, the gin supports local communities, from sourcing to seamstress-made bottle sleeves, with $1 per export bottle funding early childhood education in Tsutsubega.

More than a drink, Okavango Gin is a celebration of wilderness, sustainability, and the spirit of Botswana.
